Government Inclined to Await Notification of the Senate's Action.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—In view of the store. In the store his salary was $30 events in South Africa it is scarcely a month; as manager of the plantalength and seriousness.

The London Times correspondent today makes a passionate comparison II years of age, between the present stage of affairs and that which existed at the time of the Venezuelan dispute, and bitterly arraigns President McKinley and the Senate, yet Lord Pauncefote has not cabled a word to the Foreign Office, which only heard of the vote on the Law Against Its Sale Will Be Framed Davis amendment through the press.

in America that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty was secured by the cuteness we receive the results through diplomatic channels. We are anxious to know what America really does want, and until we know it is absurd to surmise what to do. However, the Clayron-bulwer treaty worked satisfactorily for years and as new treaties seem to cause dissensions in America maybe it is just as well if we are obliged to revert to the former agreement the force and equity of which we have never for a moment doubted, we have never for a moment doubted, elected.

an question declares, that because America desires a concession it is not sufficient reason for making it without getting an equivalent in return, and suggests that a "way out of the dim" suggests that a "way out of the diffi-culty is to settle the vexatious Alaskan boundary against the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty."
